STILL IN DOUBT.

THE REPUBLICANS CLAIM FOR NELL'S ELECTION.

No Returns Received, and Nothing but Republicans Estimates Furnished—Mysterious Work.

New York furnishes a singular spectacle. Two days have passed, and yet everything regarding the State ticket is in doubt. The Republicans claim the entire ticket, and yet say they are not assured. In New York city the official returns show that the entire straight Democratic county ticket is elected and that Tammany's showing in the board of aldermen is very small. Sullivan county, which has from time immemorial returned a Democratic assemblyman by a majority ranging from 500 to 700 majority, is reported to have given Potts, Republican, over 500. This is the only county, with the exception of New York and Kings, that is mentioned in the dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The total city vote for sheriff so far as completed gives Sheriff Butler, 47,500; Roberts 4,500; Bowes, 38,500; For county, clerk, Erhardt, 45,000; Gambleton, 47,500; Butler, 54,750.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—It was estimated at regular Democratic committee headquarters to-day that Clarkson N. Cornelia, candidate for Lieutenant Governor by 13,000 pluralities at least. His majority in New York and Kings county is 74,333, being the largest ever received by any candidate except at a Presidential election. Estimate of all county results is that Cornelia's majority exceeds 15,000. An Albany special signed by the editor of the Evening Journal says: "Cornelia's plurality is over 35,000. Our present figures make the majority against Haskins less than 2,000. Most if not all of the ticket is elected. Democratic State officers privately give up most of their tickets."

MIDDLETON, N. Y., Nov. 6.—In Sullivan county the Republicans elect Potts as Assemblyman by 53 majority. George Hill as Senator by 100. It is probable that Mr. Hill, a Lieutenant Governor by 13,000 pluralities at least. His majority in New York and Kings county is 74,333, being the largest ever received by any candidate except at a Presidential election. Estimate of all county results is that Cornelia's majority exceeds 15,000.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The Evening Journal claims there is reason good to believe that part, at least, of the Republican ticket is safe. Cornelia is elected. Its latest figures give Haskins a majority of 455 over Potter. It also makes Cornelia's plurality 42,454.

VIRGINIA.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—The official returns from Pinetree precinct, Powhatan county, give Dr. A. Whitehead and Nevis Lewis, Readjusters candidates for the Legislature for Chesterfield county, and Major Joseph Walker, Readjuster candidate for the large number of voters on the Funder nominees. Dr. E. H. Smith, Republican Funder for the House of Delegates from Dinwiddie county, is elected over Dr. E. C. Powell, Readjuster, by 388 majority.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—Returns from the metropolitan and surrounding areas show that the Republicans have lost about 10,000 majority. The indications now are that the Republican State ticket is elected by 25,000 majority. This is the largest ever given in the State.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6.—Later advices and more careful computations increase the probable Republican majority to 14,000. Returns from the pre-estimated areas indicate that the vote of the State give Pillsbury, Republican, 16,825; Rice, Democrat, 14,827; Gilligan for Lieutenant Governor, 17,477; Barnum, 13,916; Van Baumach for Secretary of State, 17,374; Baile, 13,947; Gilligan having lost about as many votes as he gained, his majority is about an average of the ticket. It is estimated that further returns will increase Pillsbury's majority to at least 12,000.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Nebraska, November 6.—No returns from the election in this State were received in yesterday. The returns last evening show that the Republicans elect Cobb to the Supreme court by 15,000 majority and elect the mos. of the other candidates. Savage, Democrat, for district judge in the Third district will have twelve hundred majority. The Greenback vote is still.

KANSAS.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 6.—Returns from the State are not yet in. A very light Greenback vote has been polled though in one or two places the Greenback candidate is elected. Otherwise the Republicans have increased their majorities.

PENNSYLVANIA.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 6.—The official majority of Barr, Democrat, for Treasurer in Erie county is 2,037.

Turkish Affairs.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Standard's Constantinople correspondent telegraphs that Count Zichy has arrived in Constantinople. He is charged to give formal assurances to the Sultan of friendly feelings of Austria toward Turkey. It is believed Said Pasha, Grand Vizier and Mahmoud Nedim Pasha, Minister of the Interior, have tendered their resignations. The Standard's Berlin despatch says the appearance of the English squadron in Syrian waters is likely to be succeeded by a dispatch of German and Austrian vessels of war to the eastern Mediterranean.

The Courtney-Hanlan Match.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—Hanlan received a telegram from Blaikie, stating Courtney accepted his proposition. He replied also accepting and assuring him, to instruct Courtney to forward articles for race at Washington the first of December.

The Turf.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The race for the Liverpool autumn cup at Liverpool and the meeting were won by Lord Hastings, Master Hildare, Lord Hartington, Kylston second; F. Davis Sunbeam third. Eleven men.

Another Failure.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—John Pilkington, the proprietor of the Albion Mills in the Bolton district, has failed.

The Central System—Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The board of managers of the Produce Exchange have refused to grant the request of the grain dealers to drop the central system, and will, therefore, continue it, having adopted some time ago to set the system in operation on and after January 1, 1880.

The governing committee of the Stock Exchange, at a meeting held last evening, voted to enlarge the membership from 1,069 to 1,100, and the forty new members shall pay to the institution a fee of $10,000; and after the membership reaches 1,100, the initiation will be raised to $20,000. When seats are sold by the transfer of a member instead of by the Exchange, the purchaser will have to pay to the Exchange $2,000, when there shall be eleven or twelve members, instead of $500, as at present. This is all to be submitted to the general meeting of the Exchange. The proceeds of the sale of new seats will pay for the new buildings recently purchased by the Exchange.

The TEXAS PACIFIC

THE OFFICERS AWAITING GENERAL GRANT'S ACCEPTANCE.

An Offer of the Presidency of the Texas Pacific Railroad at $50,000 a Year.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Ex-Governor Brown, vice-president of the Texas Pacific Railroad, who had been in this city for the last week or so, is the authority for the statement that an offer of the presidency of this road was sent to General Grant last Saturday and is now awaiting his disposal. The managers of the road propose to have the salary of the office fixed at $50,000 per annum, in order to make its acceptance an object to General Grant. Before it was decided to ask Grant to accept the presidency of the corporation several friends of the road had announced that the Texas Pacific would ask for no subsidies from Congress.

This statement was made when it was believed that any further effort to obtain a subsidy would be useless. Since it is now proposed to submit the services of Grant may be obtained for a subsidy has been broached, and it is hoped that the good Republicans in Congress may be persuaded by Grant to vote for it.

He was aroused from slumber on night during the past week by a disturbance in his pile, which he at once put gun in hand, to investigate the uproar.

A thief was discovered, who fled upon hearing Mr. D. approach, receiving as a parting token a heavy sprinkle of shot which unfortunately proved ineffectual in stopping him.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop't.

An extra session of the Florida Legislature, to consider the proposition of the Florida ship canal, will probably be held soon.

THERE are now in the United States treasury vaults, according to Mr. Gilligan, nearly one hundred and seventy-two millions of gold coin and bullion, thirty-two millions of standard silver dollars, seventeen millions of fractional silver coin, and eight millions of silver coin certificates and bullion.

THE report is going the rounds on the strength of the statement of a Michigan Republican, who was on familiar terms with the late Senator Chandler, that the Presidential fever had taken firm hold of Mr. Chandler. In the last two or three months several newspapers in Michigan friendly to Mr. Chandler have been filled almost daily with articles pointing to him as a probable candidate on the Republican ticket, and these articles, it is understood, were published with full cognizance and approval. Mr. Chandler, it is said, had the idea that in case of a bitter contest for the nomination, as in 1856 at Cincinnati, he might slip in as Mr. Hayes did.

The Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, United States Senator from Delaware, sailed for home on the 25th ultimo, and will probably arrive in New York about the 10th instant. Upon his arrival at Wilmington he will be tendered a public reception in the Opera House, which will be participated in by both political parties. Among the many names signed to the call for a meeting to make arrangements are such prominent Republicans as J. Taylor Gause, of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, Charles Warner & Co., H. S. McComb and very many others. The reception will be very extensive affair.

We have already mentioned the fact that the Boston Globe, on hearing of the many assertions of bribery and corruption on the part of the Republicans during the recent canvass, and election in Maine, sent a corps of detectives into the Blaine-Hale stronghold. Their report has attracted much attention in New England, and the alleged frauds are to be investigated. If it is satisfactorily proven to Governor Garcelon and his council that Mr. Davis attained his plurality vote by the means charged by the Globe, it is stated for their intention not to allow him to qualify for the gubernatorial office. The Governor and council count the vote, and they have the power to refuse the certificate of election to Mr. Davis if it is demonstrated that he owes his success to fraudulent voting.

THE RESULT IN NEW YORK.
Although not wholly unexpected, the defeat of Governor Robinson causes some little surprise. Acknowledging a certain amount of strength for the Tammany faction in the city, still the result shows it was somewhat underrated by the Governor's friends—nearly as much as Mr. Kelly overestimated it. It was estimated that Mr. Kelly might get 25,000 votes in the city, whereas he got 42,000, coming within three thousand of Mr. Cornell. Yet with all this pullback, Governor Robinson left the city with 13,000 plurality over the straight Republican candidate while Mr. Potter, the Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, carried with him about 74,000 majority.

The returns at present writing, 11 p.m., are still incomplete. The election of Mr. Potter, the Democratic nominee, is conceded by the Republican authorities, and yet they claim the entire State ticket, Mr. Cornell's plurality being estimated at 42,000. How the Democratic State ticket, with the exception of the head, could leave New York with 74,000 majority and lose it all in the State is unexplained. There is something mysterious about the whole thing. Ordinarily in New York full returns are received by the next night from every district within the State, and yet two days have gone by and the State ticket is still in doubt. All the reports we received last night are from a Republican source, the Albany Evening Journal, and yet the claims are made without reliable figures to support them—nothing but estimates are furnished.

Many had hoped that Mr. Robinson would succeed. He has made a most capable Governor; he has proven himself honest, brave and efficient; personally he is much esteemed outside his State; and yet many feel satisfied with his defeat, believing that Mr. Tilden's pretensions are effectually disposed of. With Mr. Tilden out of the way it is believed that Mr. Bayard stands a far better chance next year for carrying New York.

Mr. Tilden is not the choice of the South; but if he had been able to elect Governor Robinson he would undoubtedly have received the nomination next year and his election then was a foregone conclusion. He has no real claim on the party now, and he must retire before a better and a stronger man. That man is Thomas F. Bayard. With a clear record, of sound financial principles, and possessing great personal popularity, he would command a larger following than any other man the Democracy could name.

With Bayard to carry New York and New Jersey, and Palmer to carry Illinois, Democratic success in 1880 would be assured.

OUR FRIEND GRAHAM.

Mr. Graham is the gentleman who was sent to the mountains in the western part of the State to sketch for Mrs. Davis' articles shortly to appear in Harper's Magazine. We made some mention of him a fortnight ago in relation to the little fables emanating from him and appearing in the New York Tribune. Since then our views regarding his veracity have been substantiated by the Asheville Citizen. Mr. Graham is a good writer; an easy writer. Unwittingly he also gives us an insight into his peculiarities as a landscape artist. No winter scene would be in his line—no snow-covered roofs, no well-clad farmers wading up to their knees through drifts of frozen vapor, would be in union with his ideas of the painter's art. But for an historical painter, with a Waterloo to liven and color; with surging cavalry charges and parks of artillery belching forth flame and death—then Graham would be super-royal. With a field strewn with the wrecks of battle where death has held high carnival; with men and horses writhing in their death agony, mixed up with dismounted pieces and shattered limbers—there Graham would be in his element.

Or remove the scene to the Jackson hills, with a farmer's boy armed with a flint-lock musket in the foreground watching for squirrels and ground-hogs; the veracious Graham, searching intently for new beauties of nature to transfer to the sheets of his portfolio; suddenly his gaze rests upon this Luigi Vampa of Carolina; the bandit espies something—a chipmunk, perhaps—and Graham with trembling limbs and beating heart watches his motions; up goes the piece; an instant more the wood is filled with flashing fire and ringing echoes; and the sound of patter shot, and the a-frightened artist turns in wild despair and gallops off like the bounding elk. He has been attacked by "moonshiners." And the woods are full of em.

Crimson is his color. He glories in it. It has the same effect on him that a red rag on a bull—only it hasn't. A bull would undertake to trample the hated tint out of sight, but Graham tramps the other way. And when he reaches a place of assured safety he indulges in stories which, if there is any truth in the Bible, will assure him in the hereafter a capital chance to investigate the quality, strength and tone of the words.

This is what the Citizen says:

Mr. Graham brought from Mr. Davis, a letter of introduction to Messrs. Weddin & Bailey, of this place, stating that she had found Mr. Weddin a gentleman in her dealings with him while traveling through this country, and she knew he would give Mr. Graham all necessary information to enable him to procure any additional evidence, at the same time asking the Commissioner as a favor to have everything done which would make him comfortable in camping out, as he desired to do so while sketching different points, and gave him a receipt to cover his expenses. Mr. C. C. Lee, whose veracity has never been questioned, and whose bury form would prove a protection to Mr. Graham should danger cross his path. Together these two traversed Buncombe, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, and possibly into Georgia, and saw both the country and people, doubtless, the "moonshiners" as well as the quiet farmer, and then this artist crossed over to Wainwright and thence home, without long delay, and returned, it is said, because he was induced to tear it out of racking his brain while concocting the wonderful tales with which he desired to lay bare the Northern soul.

After reading the statement of Mr. Graham as to the dangers he had encountered, it is well for us to remember that he was subjected to—"we quietly dropped in on Mr. Lee, the guide who got scared and ran away from Mr. Graham (but who had not heard of the man in whom he had confidence) and asked him to tear it out of racking his brain while concocting the wonderful tales with which he desired to lay bare the Northern soul."

Each of Warner's Safe Remedies—the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, Safe Pill, Safe Quinine, and Safe Bitters, is assured to be of the best quality and the invention to keep it so. Many medical expert can add an ingredient which will improve any one of them, he will be paid a high price for the improvement.

Medical.

If you are a man of business, weakened by the strain of
HOP BITTERS!

If you are a man of letters, toiling over your midnight work to restore brain nerve and wile, use
HOP BITTERS!

If you are young and suffering from any indirection or indisposition; if you are married or single, old or young, a woman, a mother, a wife, a daughter, lying on a bed of sickness, rely on
HOP BITTERS!

Did any one interfere with you while sleeping at night? No, say the
No say there is nothing to make whatever happened during our trip to make it unpleasant.

Did not some moonshiners camp around you one night, and one of them fire into the tent of Mr. Graham?

Is there no disappointment at our question caused me to laugh in his face, "I don't understand what you mean," said he. Nothing of the kind occurred, and no moonshiners camped near us at any time.

How far did you accompany Mr. Graham?

I went with him into the Indian settlements and finally left him at Highlands, in Macon county, from which place he was going home.

Are you sure that nothing was done or said by Mr. Graham calculated to make that gentleman believe that harm was meant him?

"Nothing whatever, sir. The people everywhere treated us with the greatest kindness, and every one expressed pleasure that our country was to be sketched."

At this point we told Messrs. Lee and Weddin that we were surprised, and Mr. Lee's astonishment was only surpassed by the indignation of Gus Weddin that he should have been so imposed on by one who professed to be going throughout our lovely country with the object that to acquaint the readers of Harper's Magazine with the many beauties to be found in Western Carolina.

And these are "Southern outrages" manufactured for political purposes—a people slandered and vilified only that the Northern demagogue may ride into power and power.

The object of this article in the Tribune was to help the Republican campaign in New York.

IF NOT BETTER."

General Allan B. Rutherford, of North Carolina, ex Third Auditor of the Treasury, is a man of opinions, and one who does not hesitate to express them on occasion. During a recent visit to Wilmington he was interviewed by the Post of the city, from the report of which we reproduce, without comment and especially without endorsement, the following extract:

Editor Post—Well, General, what do you think of the Southern Republican association on here in Washington?

General R.—Think of it? Why, I think the Southern Republicans are a decent, honest, industrious, and progressive people in the country that a majority of the association is made up of a lot of office-seekers and office-holders who have been repudiated by the leaders of the movement, who have no financial or political standing either at home or abroad. Many of them could not control a township election in the States that they pretend here to represent. It has the appearance to every outsider as an attempt to build down the Republican party of the Nation.

Editor Post—Well, General, what is the intention of the organization?

General R.—It looks like a scheme to get control upon the President and his Cabinet, and to give them some of the official chancery from the kitchen, if nothing better.

SPEAKING of the Yorktown Centennial, Governor Holiday, of Virginia, says the executive officers of the other colonial States will call the attention of their respective legislatures this winter to the proposed centennial in 1881 in special messages, and suggests the priority of taking some action looking to carrying out the object of the movements. The Governor will call the attention of the Virginia General Assembly to the matter, and possibly some aid will be asked for by some of those who take a lively interest in the scheme. The Governors of South Carolina, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Maryland especially have manifested a great deal of interest in this matter, and have promised to aid the scheme all in their power.

The Celestial Smoker.

We learn that Mr. J. T. Fay, of Scott's Hill, Fauquier county, came near losing his buildings and property this morning by fire, through the carelessness of a colored boy. It seems that the boy was engaged yesterday in picking cotton on the farm, when, as is his custom, he picked up a cart and hauled it up into the barn, into which the bags were thrown. During the evening Mr. Fay, in walking about his buildings, imagined he smelt the odor of burning cotton, and went into the barn to see the cause of the ignition of fire, but discovered none, although he had handled all the bags which had been brought in. Upon going out early this morning, however, he was surprised to learn that the floor of the barn, on the left side, was on fire, and the floor of the rest, on the right, was burning. By quick and determined work the fire was extinguished, destroying only the bag of cotton and doing some damage to the floor, which can easily be repaired. We are sorry to say, however, that in his efforts Mr. Fay's boots were ruined, and his hands severely scorched. It is supposed the boy, who is an inveterate smoker, was smoking and carelessly lit some of the fire from his pipe drop in among the cotton.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

MAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with laxity, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied by a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of pains and debility, he is easily startled, his feet are cold and tremulous, and he complains of a quick sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up courage enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

Dr. C. McLane's LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

Beware of Imitations.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the front, with the impression DR. MCCLANE'S

LIVER PILLS, prepared by

FLEMING, Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently by some pronunciation.

Gossip for the Ladies.

Two Women.

The shadows lay along Broadway,
'Twas near the twilight tide,
And slowly there a lady fair,
Was walking in her pride.
Alone walked she; but, viewlessly,
Walked spirits at her side.

Peace charmed the street beneath her feet.

And Home charmed the air;
And a soft wind kindled her,
And she felt her good as fair—
For all God ever gave to her
She kept with chary care.

She kept with care her beauties rare,
From blear warm and true.
Her heart was cold to all but gold,
And the rich came not to woo—
But honored well are the charms to sell.

If priests the selling do.

Now, walking there was one more fair—
A slight girl, bly pale;

And she had unseen company
To make the spirit quail—
Twixt Want and Scorn she walked Forlorn,

And nothing could avail.

No mercy now can cheer her brow
For this world's peace to pray;

For as love's wills prayer dissolved in

Her woman's heart gave way!
But the sin forgiven by Christ in heaven

By man is cursed alway!

—Willis.

Here lies a girl as one forgotten, who lost her shape with the rise of cotton.

A lady dentist in Berlin has charge of the teeth of the children of the Crown Prince and a number of lady physicians rank high in European circles.

Some females have just been arrested in Koenigsberg for the sale of illicit whisky.

This is the first recorded instance of a woman keeping still.

The woman suffrage movement begins to assume importance on the Pacific coast.

Several public meetings have lately been held in San Francisco.

Her hair was strictly cardinal,

Her face was flaked with freckles;

But still she was George injury in,

Because with shining looks.

She was well supplied.

Statues are to be erected in Paris at the expense of the city to George Sand,

Madame Sevigne, Madame de Staél,

Madame Vigée Le Brun, Madame Roland,

Madame Geoffrin de la Fayette and Mademoiselle Mars.

A young gentleman and lady who were evidently staying in the loving talk by the door, behind the door, referred to their sudden agitation by remarking that they had been hit by that beat like fun.

The manufacture of tobacco furnishes employment to some ten thousand children. The girls are especially skilled in this industry, and one can purchase a gross of tobacco in tin foil and twenty two gross in paper in one day.

Some day a woman of noble impulses and a strong right arm will be granted to earth, and then the man who is in the habit of looking over his shoulder at ladies he has passed on the street will be struck dumb and th' inquit, because that woman is born to him; and when she does it, he will be only good for the doctors.

Get out Doors!

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operators pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, mischievous feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicines in the world cannot cure them. They get out of doors or use Hap Bitters, the parent and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them.
They cost but a trifle. See another column.

Cuticura

From the Hon. WM. TAYLOR, STATE
SNAKE OIL MASSACHUSETTS.

Messrs. Weeks & Parrott, Gentlemen—

To say that I am grateful, is only a poor expression of my feelings, but it is the best word I can use, for I feel it in every part of the world, and I am suffering with skin diseases for the last twelve (12) years.

My head and face being covered with sores, which were very painful, and caused continual itching of the parts affected, and was continued to my house for weeks at a time. My doctors told me that it was the most aggravated type, by many physicians, but I doubt it every fully understood by any of them, but I have the combination of several skin humors.

I have tried every known medicine, and when I did not feel that a cure would result from them, I gave up.

When I was about six hundred arsenic pills a day, and taken little after bot-teries of internal remedies, besides all the external applications I have used, and I expect you will be surprised to learn that I could not be cured, but might be kept from getting worse.

Now, some months ago, Mr. Meehan,

a gentleman well known to Boston people, called my attention to your CUTI-

URA, and recommended it to me, and I immediately tried it. He told me his own experience with it, and so persevered

on that I went with him to a drug store and bought a bottle of CUTICURA OIL and some CUTICURA SOAP, and commenced to use it according to the directions. There was no improvement, and I gave up.

On that same day I commenced the use of CUTI-CURA, and recovered within a few days.

I tried it again, and again, until the present moment, after three months' use of CUTI-

CURA, and twelve years of constant suffering, I am now perfectly well.

I tell all my friends that Dr.

Wm. H. Taylor, whose reputation for the cure of those diseases was the highest and most general, is the best.

He prescribed for me, I followed his advice for six months, and I can say without any improvement. I tried other remedies, and consulted some of the best physicians in the country, and when at no time did I feel that a cure would result from them, I gave up.

Now, I have suffered nice hundred arsenic

pills a day, and taken little after bot-

teries of internal remedies, besides all the
external applications I have used, and I expect

could not be cured, but might be kept

—Regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-night.

—Mrs. Moon left the city yesterday at 8:30 A. M., on the northern train.

—The New York election was too good for the politicians yesterday.

—Three more marriage licenses issued yesterday. "Then I said, Oh!"

—The convection of Raleigh is in session at the Good Shepherd's Church.

—Mr. W. F. Craig, of Salisbury, son-in-law of our townsmen, P. F. Peckard, Sr., is in the city.

—Lincke's gymnasium open to-night, Adams' building fourth floor, corner Martin and Wilmington streets.

—The revival at the Salisbury street Baptist church continues and great interest is reported as being manifested.

—The colored troops are to be allowed the use of the county court house during the colored people's exposition.

—Deputy sheriff Carpenter of Gaston county, yesterday lodged George Perkins, convicted of larceny in the city.

—The firm of Bullock & Thompson evidently have plenty of work on hand, as they advertise for six painters to go into the country.

—The Northern mail was more than two hours behind last night, owing to an accident at Gaston. No serious damage done, however.

—Casius A. Mattoon, brother-in-law of Col. A. W. Shadler, died at his residence yesterday afternoon. See funeral notice elsewhere.

—Capt. R. E. Fulghum of the Greensboro Patriotic is in the city. The Captain reports the Patriot as in a flourishing condition. So mote it be.

—They had had a fire in Oak Grove township, whereby Dr. J. F. Lassiter's storehouse was burned; several bales of cotton and a lot of wheat.

—The magistrates are to be supplied with those dockets, the clerk of the Board of County Commissioners having been directed by that body to purchase the same.

—The magistrates of the county will meet in joint session with the board of County Commissioners on the first Monday in December at the Court-house in this city.

—The convection of Raleigh will hold a session in the Chapel of St. Mary's School this Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The public are cordially invited.

—Read Professor Lincke's local advertisement in the next column. It is a healthy exercise to develop your muscles on the various gymnastic tricks we will teach you to perform.

—The telephone at the News office has been kept busy for the last two days,引起ing inquiries about the election. Everybody is keeping blessings on the head of Manager Starke—we not included.

—The type or something else made the party's name who was bound over by Justice Barbee, an account of which appeared in yesterday's News, read J. L. Edwards instead of J. L. Adams. Mr. Edwards is a very proper young gentleman, and the error was certainly a thorough mistake. The News makes this correction with pleasure.

—L. Levy was up before His Honor Mayor Manly yesterday upon the charge of assault and battery on the street. He and a negro man, it seems, had a fistfight in front of Levy's store on Fayetteville street in which the negro got the second best. The Mayor fined Levy $100, he was allowed to take his case to the police.

—The Citizen Review, a journal devoted exclusively to that trade published in New York city, refers to the large increase in the Southern trade and instances the firm of Yeargan, Petty & Company, of this city. The sales of this firm have increased largely, and it is shown that the "boom" of business warrants expenditures in this department.

—Look out for the meteoric shower predicted to come off on the night of the 13th. Sit up all night and may be you'll see it. The astronomers say the last one took place in 1833, and that it was a sight well worth seeing. The stars were up full about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. So note the approaching shower of stars before it comes.

—A white party was before Justice Barbee yesterday charged with willful trespass. It seems that he was a little off and espousing a milk wagon and team driver, and so got a fine or a scold from the milk man being inside the door (livering his milk), took a sudden notion to take an afternoon's drive. Pretty soon he and said team were seen coming in the bre-knick speeded several blocks away, and the spoke broke off of them. He brought up in front of the Yarborough, where he was arrested by the police, and afterward released upon a warrant from Justice Barbee, who deferred the case for a hearing until this morning, when the trial will take place.

—She weighed twelve and a half pounds when she opened her sweet blue eyes yesterday on this world of ours. Of the days in store for her, whether for joy or lingering sorrow, we are not told. The right shapes are formed. Of course she is a darling—the baby never was born in a Christian land that wasn't; but this is a paragon. So says Charley Harper, the book-keeper of the News office, as he runs on trying to make $10 and $4.30 foot up 12½, and him being a "Baby Mine." Now cradles and safety pins are in order, and as his birthday has just passed is to be hoped that he will not overload him with all sorts of presents in honor of the double event.

—John Fort, colored, is a sensible and discreet-ory darky, but he exercised his facilities this time in a wrong direction. Day before yesterday and the day before that was a mighty cold day and John felt it. John also had sense enough to know that more cold was coming, and he began to think over the most available way and means of providing himself with the necessary overcoat to keep him warm this winter. It seems he had the cheapest way would be to make his own, and so he did, stealing and yesterday he was before His Honor Mayor Manly charged with the larceny of an overcoat. His Honor thought his appearance before the Judge of the Superior Court would be highly proper, and requested John to fix a bond for his appearance. John couldn't fix it and in consequence John had had apartments "fixed up" for him in the county jail.

—The following are the jurors drawn to serve at the November term of the United States Circuit Court, which convenes in this place on the 21st, and the King, A. Parker, C. G. Latte, Jonah H. Davis, col., W. J. Young, C. C. Clawson, M. Woodleaf, Troy Pool, J. D. Hayes, J. R. Whitehead, Hugh S. Hayes, Calvin J. Rogers, Robt. Fugay, col., B. J. Parkinson, P. Wiley, J. W. Williams, J. W. Dulitt, H. W. Johnson, J. M. Moore, A. N. Betts, W. E. Ferrell, C. F. Jones, F. C. Christopher, J. R. Nipper, John W. Bright, H. E. Eason, J. W. Armstrong, W. H. Price, D. F. Port, J. Z. Bennett, W. A. Putter, A. B. Flemming, col., Allen Lane, col., John Rogers, col., D. C. Hutchings, W. G. Ridderick, W. P. Wetherell, J. Rowan Rogers, Geo. H. Williams, F. A. Stromach, G. W. Partin, Allen Terrell, col., D. G. Gill, Joseph P. Prairie, James Womack.

—Died.
In this city on Thursday afternoon Cassius A. Mattoon. Funeral services at his late residence on New Bern Avenue this afternoon at 4 o'clock. He will be buried at the Federal Cemetery.

Skating To-Night.
The Rink is assuredly a novelty that will wear. Rollerskating is now the chief attraction of the city. On last Friday evening there was a very select assembly at the Rink, and the skating was excellent. The ladies are improving rapidly, and some boast around the rink as it is impelled by some magic power. It is astonishing to see the rapidity with which ladies acquire the art of skating, and we doubt not but what there will be skating clubs formed here, and that the citizens by their graceful evolutions on roller skates, and we would not be surprised to see some of the lady members of the clubs performing a variety of evolutions, such as only those who are very proficient in the art can surpass.
